

ABSTRACT

In this technical talk, Alba will introduce the basic concepts behind tissue clearing technology, with a focus in iDISCO. She will provide an overview of the workflow from sample preparation to light-sheet imaging and analysis. Finally, she will share some examples of the projects at her laboratory that are using iDISCO and TRISCO to map the dynamics of the adult mouse in conditions of central and peripheral injury.